The extra guides — Henry, Tina and Connie, were also good teachers and entertainers. It was a wonderful trip."

He now lives in Dublin and teaches at Clonkeen College. Ashraf Masoud Travel Director

Born and raised in Egypt, Ashraf has extensive experience as a guide and travel director. He has also managed operations and logistics for corporate board meetings and conferences, including the Global Peace Initiative meeting of People to People International. His passion for people and strong attention to detail placed him in the top 10 of Wanderlust Magazine's 2018 World Guide Awards. Ashraf has earned a bachelor's degree in history from Cairo's Ain Shams University; tour management certification from San Francisco's Tour Management Institute; and a tourist guidance diploma from Cairo's Helwan University. He is fluent in Arabic, English and Spanish and is studying American Sign Language (ASL). Ashraf enjoys basketball, yoga, tai chi, reading, hiking and cooking and looks forward to working as a dive guide with his new diving certificate.

What did you do during isolation?

A. I took this time to learn, advance my skills and have fun. I got my diving certification; a challenge as I did not even know how to swim. I took courses in ASL, which opened my eyes to the beautiful world of the deaf; English writing and grammar; photography; and cooking.

What first sparked your interest to travel?

A. Growing up, my mother instilled in me the love of people and showed me that helping others can improve their lives and mine as well. I was also fascinated by the ancient Egyptians, foreign languages and cuisines. This fueled my interest in traveling and immersing myself in other cultures.

What attracted you to AHI Travel?

A. What makes AHI different is their commitment to delivering a life-changing experience to their guests. Recognizing that their success is a team effort, AHI is very supportive and treats their employees like family.

What is your professional philosophy?

A. Care. Care. Care. A good Travel Director cares deeply about their guests and their comfort and safety. I make sure I am patient when answering questions, listen carefully and respond to their needs. I pride myself in my ability to anticipate and address potential problems while also being flexible to opportunities that will make the guests' experience extraordinary.

Tell us about challenges and successes.

A. I enjoy a challenge. I look at challenges as blessings because they test my resourcefulness. Number one in my experience is a guest losing their passport. I appreciate being recognized by Wanderlust Magazine two years in a row. But I must say, I consider myself the most successful when AHI receives a request from a guest who wants to travel with me on another tour.

Can you share some inspiring moments?

A. I love nature, and observing the animal kingdom has opened my eyes to an astounding world. Leading tours in Africa and seeing the Big 5 is an incredible experience. On a personal trip, I traveled to 40 U.S. states, visiting the major national parks and also searching for the best buffalo wings. (Red Hot & Blue won!) That trip made a profound impact on me. My introduction to the underwater world on my first SCUBA dive was mind-blowing and made me hungry for more.

"I think we experienced the best that Egypt has to offer and that includes our remarkable tour director, Ashraf Masoud who succeeded in providing a stress-free environment as we moved from hotel to boat and temple to tomb."

AHI is committed to you

Our passion for authentic, responsible and life-changing travel experiences shapes every program.

AHI Travel is a creative travel company recognized around the world for deluxe, personalized group travel programs. Richard and Arlene Small, two travel industry pioneers, founded the company in 1962, when they launched the first alumni travel programs at universities across the United States. Soon after, they introduced AHI in Canada. They quickly earned an outstanding reputation for quality, service and value, which AHI continues to deliver today to alumni and individual travelers alike.

Personal involvement shapes every aspect of our tours. In fact, AHI leaders Brian, Joe and Rick Small help plan every program. And long before we finalize a program, our team of experienced travel experts stays in the hotels, eats in the restaurants and visits every site. We detail the things that matter most (like the number of cathedral steps you must climb or restaurants with the best food and views!) to travelers.

And now, in collaboration with our international suppliers, our team has put into action new protocols for health, safety and cleanliness. These include more rigorous sanitizing regimens for river cruise ships, hotels and motor coaches; physical distancing in motor coaches and restaurants; widely available hand sanitizer; and many other protective tactics. With these proactive initiatives in place, you can rest easy and simply focus on enjoying the people and treasures of the destination.

Our aim is to please you, period. By consistently meeting travelers' high expectations over the decades, we appeal to educated, cultured and experienced travelers — people like you. Many clients have been so pleased with our programs that they boast of taking 15, 20, even 30 trips with us!

We know you have many travel options and probably just as many questions. So call one of our AHI Travel experts at 800.323.7373. We look forward to helping you plan your trip.

A World of Discovery

The story of travel involves more than a ticket and a passport. It should weave together discovery, education and humanity, the best elements of any compelling tale. Your personal travel story begins with our commitment to delivering authentic experiences with local people.

AHI Connects

From intimate dinners to behind-the-scenes visits to hands-on lessons, our team curates unique events that instill a deeper appreciation for your destination. Learn to make rice noodles with a Cambodian family, experience a lively samba workshop in Rio or witness a fascinating, centuries-old craft on the island of Brač. Come away with memorable, immersive experiences that also support the communities we visit!

"My only other group travel experience was AHI's Cuba trip in 2017, which set a very high standard for my expectations. This trip was also outstanding in every way. Nani is outstanding as were all the speakers and guides. Nani's efficiency and warmth ensure that we, as travelers, know that the details are handled and we can enjoy our travels. I think the plan of Athens at the beginning and end, with Poros as the center piece with day trips was brilliant. Poros became a home away from home in part, but also, we were welcome guests in Nani's community! Our experience was a true Greek experience of hospitality and friendship ... Also, the learning aspects were so enriching and rewarding that I am reminded of the value of travel as helping us develop as citizens of the world."

DAY-BY-DAY ITINERARY

Day 1 | In Transit

Depart for Lima, Peru. 🌐

Transfer 🚗 to the Casa Andina Premium Miraflores.

Day 2 | Lima, Peru

Discovery: Highlights of Lima. Visit the Larco Museum, which chronicles more than 5,000 years of pre-Columbian Peruvian history. In the historic center, explore Plaza Mayor, surrounded by elegant, colonial-era buildings, including the Government Palace, Municipal Palace and the Cathedral of Lima. Enjoy a relaxing lunch near the Plaza. Then go inside the Cathedral to see its beautiful interior. Visit the Monastery of San Francisco, containing a church, a library with 25,000 antique volumes, and bone-filled catacombs beneath the church's chapels.

🌐 AHI Connects: Meet the People. Gather for a Welcome Reception and Dinner at Casa Garcia Alvarado, a National Historical Building. Take a tour of the stately house, and then sit down to a home-cooked Peruvian meal with one of the owners.

Day 3 | Lima | Iquitos | Nauta | Cruising the Amazon Basin

Transfer to the Lima airport and fly to Iquitos, the gateway to the Amazon, accessible only by plane or boat. Travel to Nauta, a small town on the Marañon River. Along the way, see the vibrant "terra firma" (non-flooded forest) and other aspects of daily jungle life. Embark the Delfin III at a private port in Nauta.

Day 4 | Cruising the Amazon Basin

Set out aboard skiff boats, anticipating each day's astounding and unexpected wildlife encounters! The region in which you are cruising, Pacaya Samiria

National Reserve, is Peru's largest wildlife preserve, boasting more than five million acres of rich biodiversity. Skim along rivers and cruise through creeks, peering into lagoons and other waterways, where an abundance of wildlife hides in the deep rain forest, such as blue and yellow macaws, toucans, umbrella birds, capybaras and more. You may catch glimpses of the endangered charapa turtle, spider monkey or giant river otter. Marvel at the pink dolphins, known as boto, swimming nearby.

Day 5 | Cruising the Amazon Basin

Never does nature seem more bountiful than in the tropics, and rising early is always rewarding since wildlife is most abundant and active at daybreak. With your expert guide, hike into the rain forest to explore the fantastic flora and fauna. Sharp eyes may spot squirrel and red howler monkeys, iguanas lazing in the sun and sloths hanging in the canopy.

Enrichment: Contemporary Peru.

Day 6 | Nauta | Iquitos | Lima | Cusco

After breakfast, disembark the ship in Nauta and transfer via coach to the Iquitos airport.

Discovery: Manatee Rescue Center. En route to the airport, visit this fascinating center, which runs a conservation program to protect endangered manatees and other animals. Meet these gentle creatures up close and even feed them!

Board your flight for Cusco via Lima. Once you arrive in Cusco, take a panoramic drive to the Urubamba Valley, the Sacred Valley of the Incas. Check in to the Casa Andina Premium Valle Sagrado.

Day 7 | Sacred Valley

Discovery: Sacred Valley. Ollantaytambo, built on top of an Inca settlement, is the best surviving example of Inca town planning. It rests just below the Ollantaytambo ruins, a series of huge terraces that hug the hillside. Explore this unique fortress. Next, visit a village seemingly frozen in time, and learn about the centuries-old weaving methods used by the residents and their everyday life in this challenging mountain environment. Later, visit a ranch for lunch and an equestrian demonstration.

Day 8 | Sacred Valley | Machu Picchu

Take a scenic train ride through the Sacred Valley to the town of Aguas Calientes and the Inkaterra Machu Picchu Pueblo hotel.

Discovery: Machu Picchu. Nestled in a cloud forest high in the Andes, the Lost City of the Inca is regarded as the most important archaeological site in the Americas. Archaeologists believe that this masterfully planned site, surrounded by steep agricultural terraces, served as a center of worship or a royal estate for Inca emperors and nobility. Wander through stone temples, grassy plazas, palaces and workshops with an expert guide.

Day 9 | Machu Picchu | Cusco

Free Time: Enjoy time at leisure this morning.

Travel by train through the lovely mountain scenery and then by motor coach to Cusco. Check in to the Palacio del Inka.

Free Time: Explore Cusco on your own.

Day 10 | Cusco

Discovery: Cusco, the Ancient Inca Capital.

This sacred city, perched 11,152 feet above sea level, was the religious and administrative center of the Inca Empire. With a guide, visit the Cathedral on the Plaza de Armas, noted for its colonial art, and the Santo Domingo Temple. Enjoy lunch in town.

Discovery: Sacsayhuaman. Marvel at these impressive ruins, built with massive stones (one weighs 125 tons!) without a single drop of mortar.

Day 11 | Cusco | Lima | Depart for gateway city

Enjoy the morning at leisure, followed by lunch in Cusco. Depart for Cusco's airport and fly to Lima. Connect in Lima to your international flight home.
